Felicia J. Boyd is a partner with Barnes & Thornburg LLP in the firm's Minneapolis office, where she has served as co-chair of the firm's Intellectual Property Department.

Ms. Boyd focuses her practice on complex intellectual property litigation and has led plaintiff and defense litigation on a large variety of claims related to patents, copyrights, trademarks, and trade dress in federal and state court as well as complex matters before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (TTAB). Her litigation experience spans a diverse array of industries, including financial and investment services, medical devices, software, music, pharmaceuticals, and manufactured goods. Ms. Boyd's victories have included preliminary injunction motions, summary judgment motions, favorable settlements, and jury verdicts at trial. She is a registered patent attorney with a bachelor's degree in chemistry and has represented clients in contested proceedings before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO).

Ms. Boyd has played a leading role in large patent infringement matters for several clients. As a result, she has had significant experience in complex case management; coordination of global discovery efforts; design and implementation of litigation strategy; investigation of underlying disputed issues; the selection and development of all experts, and Markman strategy, briefing and argument.

Ms. Boyd is also actively involved in the use of alternative dispute resolution. She provides arbitration services as a Fellow of the CI Arb (Chartered Institute of Arbitrators). She is a member of LCIA (The London Court of International Arbitration), member of ArbitralWomen and a commercial litigation panel member of the American Arbitration Association. Also, Ms. Boyd is a member of the International Bar Association where she serves on the Forum for Barristers and Advocates Committee, Intellectual Property and Entertainment Law Committee and the North American Regional Forum Committee. She is also a member of the International Trademark Association's (INTA) Panel of Trademark Mediators and participates in the INTA Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee where she is the Chair for the Europe, Africa and Middle East Subcommittee.

Ms. Boyd has been included in The Best Lawyers in America since 2010 in the field of intellectual property law, and in Who's Who Legal for her trademark practice. In 2016, she was recognized as one of Managing IP's Top 250 Women in IP nationwide and invited to become a Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America. Since 2013, Ms. Boyd has been recognized by Chambers USA for her IP litigation practice. She was also highly ranked in the 2013 and 2017 editions of World Trademark Review (WTR) 1000, a publication that annually identifies the world's leading trademark professionals. In 2013, Minnesota Lawyer named Ms. Boyd one of its "Attorneys of the Year" and Minnesota Monthly recognized her as one of "Minnesota's Best Lawyers." Since 2014, Minnesota Super Lawyers has recognized Ms. Boyd for her work in intellectual property and intellectual property litigation. In 2016, she was named on the Top 50 Women Minnesota Super Lawyers list by Super Lawyers. Ms. Boyd was also recognized as Litigation Star by Benchmark Litigation 2015 and 2016, as well as a WIPR Leader in 2017.
